

An unexpected catch, these two sharks weighing "9cwt" each were not welcome in one's mackerel nets.

"Bert" with some fine plaice, once plenteous.

In 1961 tragedy was to strike the family when Joe working with Charlie off Norman's Bay, lost his footing and fell overboard, he was to become entangled in the nets and sadly drowned.

Joe stands alongside the boat from which he was lost.
